Hello Dominic, thanks for connecting, I am looking for assistance in regard to:

<https://archive.org/details/the-long-awaited-day-begins-digital>. I created this book at ~3.30 pm so that the State authorities can take account of it as always as pre-emptive Defence on which it would have to formulate charges if they are considering going down that path. Only then will we know who won and who lost. This is because I have asked the Court for an indefinite extension of time within which to complete the TCLP-UK's registration process application on the cultural republicanism construct.

Let me know your views by Email if possible to shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com

Thanks

Hello Rebecca, thanks for connecting.

I run a Book Publishing Company single-handedly creating websites and writing eBooks that total 447 currently. It is a not-for-profit enterprise that utilises my knowledge to develop ideas that would be sustainable and contribute to a better way of life for all of us in the United Kingdom and across the world. I have diversified the project into politics and talk about the viability of morality politics if it is constructed on the basis of harmonising truth, justice and democracy in unison. Through these endeavours I make a peaceful contribution to humanity. Please catch up with the contents that I have updated here as being the Constitution of the cultural republicanism that I am promoting from the offshoot political party of the Company named The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom or TCLP-UK for short:

I am looking for Members some of whom are requested to take up a role in the functioning of the Party through the Electoral Commission registering it to contest elections in the United Kingdom.

I look forward to having a conversation with you concerning the scope and future development of these ideas.

in General Discussion

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/forum/general-discussion/6-october-2021-22-28-pm-edition>

BACKGROUND TO THE ASSESSMENT

<https://www.civilvictimisation.co.uk/450714195>

When I was a scientist working in natural products nutrition and toxicology and even prior to that as a student, I was very mindful of what I had to do to educate myself on the need to then secure a good and well-paid job and to retain it; have a family and children at the same time to really enjoy life to the maximum taking part in all kinds of sporting activities from simple jogging, playing badminton, cricket, squash, cycling, having sex and so forth to live a life of Riley. I bought a terraced house and then a semi-detached house when still single to invest money and save on rental payments, and in the academic field wished to become a great scientist in my chosen field of research and I really did reached great heights in all my endeavours. I was a full person, got married and had a daughter to make my life complete. I was very cunning in working overtime at my job to earn greater amounts of money to save for a rainy day and invested in property in India to keep everyone in the family happy.

What was my state of mind during those years, I ask myself now. Should not that come under the term mindfulness, meaning mindful of all one's material needs and going full steam ahead in life to live life to the maximum. I never did any meditation of stillness or breathing exercises, but tried hatha yoga which resulted in me developing back ache problems so I abandoned that yoga. I never did religion except paying going to temples, bathing in the Ganga river when young. So essentially I had no bhakti. But during one of our holidays in India, I remember clearly that I had performed Nama to a statue of Ganesha the remover of obstacles in one's life and my body felt the sensation going down it from my mind, which I reflected as being very strange and I put it to the back of my mind.

When I came up against opposition to my ambitions to make myself well known in Science at the University of Greenwich, I resisted it in a very truth-accommodative manner of just thwarting the attacks so that I could retain my job and prosper in it. I was admonished for those resistance essentially to be put through a disciplinary process of being blameworthy of gross misconduct towards my colleagues and senior management. Then everything changed for I did not wish to be a slave to the University authorities believing that its workplace harassment on me was organised from outside the University in a coordinated manner. I wanted to protect my reputation so that I could then be free to salvage what reputation I had and sought the refuge of a GP-referred Consultant Psychiatrist to diagnose my mental state and he came up with the diagnosis that I was suffering from Severe Depression with Psychotic Features. I thought that would be enough to retain my job and I would be found to not be responsible for my actions in resistance to the harassment, but the University took no account of it and continued with its Disciplinary Action against me. It would not consider Medical Retirement because that would have fetched me £10,000 per year until my State-age retirement and I could still enjoy a life of Riley in some other occupation. So I did not cooperate with the University in the Disciplinary and decided to take the University through the Employment Tribunals and Courts of the United Kingdom. I saw that truth was being suppressed by the State when these failed and my asylum applications to a dozen countries similarly failed to get accepted due I believed to have been through States-organised conspiracy against me. That was when I decided to retaliate on the basis of some digital clock checking for messages from God to fight a dharmaudha against the perpetrators of persecution against me. I believed that truth was sacrosanct and suppression of truth was the highest level of religious persecution. I was incarcerated in a mental hospital in 2004 because of this and I said to the Psychiatrists there that I was a practitioner of Brahmanism, bringing religion into the consideration of my mind. All this was mindful practices, but when I got released from Sectioning three months later, I decided that no God would have wanted a devotee to end up in a mental hospital instead of being saved from a Saviour and Preserver God. So I abandoned the idea of God for some years.

Then I could only get menial jobs of a Cleaner or a warehouse worker so I decided to do these jobs and find time to continue with my Litigation against the University of Greenwich in the Civil Courts having already been found to have abused the process of one Court for the last attempt that was the precipitating factor. But the signs were not good and with threats of further Costs to be paid to the Defendant I abandoned the quest for justice.

In 2006 I landed a better job in a petrol station as a Sales Assistant doing shift work and started to earn reasonable amounts of money. My wife had a good steady job so we abandoned the thought of selling our lovely, detached house to move to a smaller house to keep ourselves afloat. However, the fighting spirit surfaced in me when I was put through another disciplinary for harassing a work colleague in the petrol station and I decided to fight for my reputation again by setting up the Union of Petrol Station Workers to recruit members against the abhorrent working practices. My shifts were removed and I took the matter to an Employment Tribunal with nothing coming out of it in my favour. I then decided to apply to the Supreme Court of India in 2008 for a return of my Indian passport that I believed I had birthright to having taken up the Citizenship of the United Kingdom in 1984 to enable me to progress my agricultural work in overseas locations. This is when the State authorities incarcerated me for a second time under Sectioning in a mental hospital, this time for a month, but as with the 2004 Sectioning I was clever enough to play my cards right to again be discharged back into the Community.

Enough was enough and fortunately I got a job in the same petrol station that was taken over by a different management in 2009, and I decided to put an end to my struggle for justice and instead find some other means of enhancing my reputation. I started going to international Forums starting with Freethought and Rationalism Discussion Board (FRDB) and found it immensely enjoyable. I notched up a thousand posts and learnt a great deal on Science and Religion, much of which I condensed into a Blog that I started with Wordpress: entitled 'Towards Knowledge for World Conservation', so I set very a high objective.

Unfortunately in 2011, the Company I was working for made me redundant as it sold the site to another Company which did not wish to run the petrol station. So I was unemployed again and having to struggle once more to make ends meet by working in a local newsagency in the mornings. My pension accrued at the University of Greenwich was still some years away, so I was depressed. At the same time I go into arguments in the Forums like FRDB, Secular Café, Rational Skepticism, and Talk Rational and was hounded out from most of them. I kept myself in Religious Forums for much longer but there too numerous conflicts arose. Further my Blog <https://shantanu.wordpress.com> was developing exquisitely and it came to the attention of the State authorities. This was when total war was declared between the State and myself, acting as the General of a one man army for I took over the next decade numerous challenges in trying to justify my claim that the United Kingdom was a nation of morons in a Police State and I was determined to punch the final nail in the coffin of this British State. My Blog was archived and suspended from public domain as also a replacement Blog with Wordpress by the same name. I spent time developing other websites all of which were threatened to be closed down but they survived the test of time to this day. I also published 11 books on my experiences that can be downloaded for free or purchased from a Publisher marketing the books.

On the 6 of October 2021, the war is over on a stalemate. And I am reflecting over how my mental state has changed over the past 24 years with the above background to be considered.

MAKING IT UP AS ONE GOES ALONG

[Edited: 15.31 pm (UK-Time), 14 June 2025]

Words are just descriptive-expressions that we have inherited from past generations of human beings. They are open to different interpretations as suits a particular raison d'être. When one is living in the freedom of satya-advaita yoga, one necessarily makes up new words as one goes along or adapts old words to meet a particular requirement in terms of what one is trying to express. It is in this context that my books are to be read and the readers have to form their own opinions on whether I have been crystal clear on what I have thought about relating to my experiences of life over the past 27 years in particular but which derives from my Hindu upbringing in India. I am of course open to providing any clarifications needed on the basis of my actions at any particular point in time and how I have expressed these in the 430 eBooks that I have so far written in the series under the theme, 'The Allurement of Reality' available here ( <https://www.theallurementofrealityinreview.com/shop> ). But I hope that no such clarifications would be necessary or me be called upon to answer: I wish to let my books do the talking, hence I am editing this post now that I have some free time. This is because I am not a very good speaker in public, and even in the creation of Videos that I attempted over the past year to develop my websites. I am good at writing. For I allow truth to just flow into my mind at the appropriate time and this creates the works that I have been producing.

So in what context am I using the words Samadhi and Maha-Samadhi. I wish to make it clear at this point in time. For me Samadhi seemingly started on completion of my Book Truth-accommodation (Satya-advaita) and I started writing the book 'Post-realisation Musings'. They were semi-conscious assessment of the knowledge that I had gained and the missing data that I needed to be searched for still in order for me to arrive at a comprehension on the Conception of Reality, the first book under the theme 'The Allurement of Reality' that I had started writing in 2004 when I came out of the mental hospital for the first time. It grew and grew into what it the Realisation is today. I had tried to consider numerous times during these years that I had total Realisation, even my elder sister in India had pointed to this in one of her utterances to me, but it turned out not to be the case. When can Realisation be complete when one does not know what there is to Realise. It had to be awaited with patience. And I formulated a plan of Self-discovery to try and get to it. This was to have a framework where I hypothesised that everything in the universe is pre-ordained and pre-orchestrated, so there was God having set the universe in motion in a particular manner; the best bhakti that I could approach God with was to discover my own fate within the Grand Design, and this was latterly over the period 2020 or so done through losing all attachments, and acting nonchalantly, spontaneously and unpremeditatedly in all my moment by moment actions as the only karma that I would engage in that could with certainty be then described as sanatan dharma, that is to say karma in sanatan dharma.

Maha Samadhi is total Realisation when one does stop one's karma in sanatan dharma and lives in Yoga-ananda, the yogadaan emanating from one's dedication to the comprehensive approach to yoga. It is the state of Living freely in total Realisation and Control so that one is making decisive acts instantly with spontaneity, nonchalance and unpremeditation without any thought of moving along a certain truth path. So there are no tactics, such is the state of Realisation as automaticity existence.

When I seemed to be surviving the persecution that was vitriolic against me in conducting myself in this manner I was picking up evidence of Dharma Rakshati Rakshita as being the eternal law of the universe, and this has not changed at the moment that I first wrote this posted account at 10.37 am on the 12 of October 2021.

I am in Maha-Samadhi now.

Registration

Application to register a political party in Great Britain

Please browse through and review the registration application. If you are happy with the details then click the "Sanction" button on the Declarations page. If you believe the details are inaccurate then you can click "Reset Sanctions" to unlock the details and make changes. Please note that you should contact the person who created the application before doing this, because the entire sanctioning process will be cancelled and will need to be carried out again before you can submit the application

Party registration review

A red cross indicates action is still required. Please revisit the relevant section to review the outstanding information.

A green tick indicates no further action is required.

Once all the sections are complete the Submit application button will become available at the bottom of the screen.

New registration applications and deregistration applications can only be submitted by the person who originally created the application, i.e. the PEF Online administrator.

Changes to registered details and annual renewals can also be submitted by the treasurer (for political parties) or the responsible person (for third parties and permitted participants).

Note: Accounting Units will display a green tick only once all accounting unit officers have confirmed their association with the party and all mandatory information for all accounting units has been entered.

Hello Mohona, thanks for connecting.

I told the Electoral Commission and the Central London County Court as well as Medway County Court about you as we worked on Constitutional issues.

Let me start afresh

I run a Book Publishing Company single-handedly creating websites and writing eBooks that total 447 currently. It is a not-for-profit enterprise that utilises my knowledge to develop ideas that would be sustainable and contribute to a better way of life for all of us in the United Kingdom and across the world. I have diversified the project into politics and talk about the viability of morality politics if it is constructed on the basis of harmonising truth, justice and democracy in unison. Through these endeavours I make a peaceful contribution to humanity. Please catch up with the contents that I have updated here as being the Constitution of the cultural republicanism that I am promoting from the offshoot political party of the Company named The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom or TCLP-UK for short:

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/about-1>

I am looking for Members some of whom are requested to take up a role in the functioning of the Party through the Electoral Commission registering it to contest elections in the United Kingdom.

I look forward to having a conversation with you concerning the scope and future development of these ideas.

Hi Shantanu, we would have to speak more to understand your idea and what you are trying to achieve. Could you please schedule a meeting with my colleague Matthew the campaign expert, Matthew@getelected.uk and myself to discuss more? Thank you for getting in touch but he is the right person to advise you

Hi Shantanu, this is certainly interesting to hear about but I'm not really sure is of any interest to me. I am a research scientist and I'm not sure this brand of politics is something I'm educated enough about to be involved with. I am also not certain it aligns with my personal politics. I appreciate you taking the time to message me regardless.

I was busy, had work to do outside the house for the family so I could not reply in detail that I wished to.

I have been to Nigeria (Abeokuta) as I worked with a Professor Oguntona there back in the early 1990's so have an affection for the people. So I was telling another Nigerian (Segun Emmanuell) the following:

I have been working on some ideas that developed in me that led to ethos and principles of conduct for morality politics to replace the highly structured and therefore stale and inflexible nature of the democracies across the world, including in the United Kingdom. If democracy is made liberal allowing it to evolve within States without outside interference naturally, the needs of the people that governments purport to serve will be enhanced. The morality politics combines truth, justice and democracy with a transparency of government that would also eradicate corruption in high as well as low places. So after studying all the four parties of the United Kingdom from memberships that I took out, I found that none could tolerate me and I could not change them to my way of thinking. So I formed my own party as an offshoot of The Conservative Libertarian Society (<https://theconservativelibertariansociety.com>). My party is called, 'The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) and I also formed the Conservative Libertarian Party of the USA with its own website because I felt that the special relationship between USA and UK needs to be fostered for the sake of Defence in a volatile planet militarily. My vision was that every country should have a Conservative Libertarian Society of morality.

Hope all this makes sense.

If it does make sense you may like to take up Membership of the knowledge Directory that I have established: <https://knowledgefoundersunited.com/>

 Hi

This is to confirm that the user with email address Matthew@getelected.uk has rejected his / her association with The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom.

Before your registration application can be submitted to the Electoral Commission, all the party officers you have nominated must confirm their association with the party. Because one of the party officers has rejected their association with the party, your application will have to be amended before it can be submitted.

You should therefore log into PEF Online, by clicking <https://pefonline.electoralcommission.org.uk/default.aspx>, update the party officers in your application, click on the Declarations links and then click on the Sanction declaration button again.

Dear Mr Panigrahi,

I am writing to formally notify you that neither my colleagues nor I have had any prior contact with you, nor have we engaged in any discussions relating to the matter at hand.

We are independent Campaign and Media Advisers and are not affiliated, registered, or otherwise associated with any political party. You are welcome to employ our services, however this is contracted and not as Officers of a new political Party. If you would like to arrange a conversation to discuss this please let me know.

However it has come to our attention that you have nominated us as Campaign Officers in connection with the establishment of a new political party. This designation has been made without our knowledge, consent, or authorisation, and is entirely inappropriate.

We hereby request that you immediately remove our names and any associated references from any such nomination or documentation.

Please be advised that should you fail to take immediate corrective action, we will have no alternative but to initiate legal proceedings to protect our professional reputation and interests.

Yours sincerely,

Cllr. Matthew Goodwin-Freeman

Dear Sir/Madam

Here I go again in search of another candidate to fill the vacancy of Campaigns Official for TCLP-UK: it will come of this there is no doubt as long as I continue to work hard to overcome the reticence of diehard laggards who find it difficult to subscribe to the 'out with the old and in with the new' adage.

Please bear with me and all future leaders of TCLP-UK for which this particular PEF Website Account facility needs to be kept open indefinitely in view of the specific justification provided in the uploaded 'Constitution of the Party' in the application-submission.

This is to confirm that the user with email address Matthew@getelected.uk has rejected his / her association with The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom.

Before your registration application can be submitted to the Electoral Commission, all the party officers you have nominated must confirm their association with the party. Because one of the party officers has rejected their association with the party, your application will have to be amended before it can be submitted.

You should therefore log into PEF Online, by clicking
<https://pefonline.electoralcommission.org.uk/default.aspx>, update the party officers in your application, click on the Declarations links and then click on the Sanction declaration button again.

The point is: You have not spoken to any of my colleagues nor I before this. You have not employed us to be Campaign Officers of your new Party, not sought even a consultation. There is no contract in place where we have agreed to this.

Your Honours

Not only have I not had my financial or Party Registration (it has to be one or the other) of the attached representations:

- (a) Particulars of Damages and Compensation J00ME572 at Medway County Court in Dr Shantanu Panigrahi v Kent Police12July2025.pdf
- (b) SHOVING UNDER THE CARPET-digital.pdf

Checked in PEF to deleted Cllr Matthew's name in light of the above action from Mohana Datta as I did not wish to enter into a Court room and found that it was already deleted. I did not wish to risk leaving it there in light of the above discovery. Entered Shanthiravikumar and Ravikumars name instead; as I have a piece of paper with their names given to me and Shanthi agreed to support me.

Everlast Games

Shantanu.

This is our FINAL weekend of the Everlast Games 2025.

With thousands of submissions, the bar has been raised.

Channels rowed. Thrusters smashed. Burpees conquered.

The exact numbers? Off the charts and still climbing.

But this is it. The final push. The last shot. The weekend to beat them all.

Haven't competed yet? Now's the time.

Already taken part? Time to go again.

Don't just show up, show us what you're made of.

Book your slot. Bring the energy.

Let's finish this.

Hello David Warner

I get the gist of your posts here and have to say that I am not in principle opposed to gambling or disseminating information on it so welcome your contributions as important information for those seeking it.

In my youth I used to gamble small amounts on playing cards and horse racing as well as pub machines but only once did I win a significant amount of money. I did not do the lottery.

I went into the Ravikumar's shop in 2 Wigmore Road Gillinahgm to purchase a newspaper and fortunately met Mr Ravikumar working there. I took this opportunity to discuss the registration application of the Party. They did not voice any untoward concerns that were expressed to me directly so the PEF Form stands unaltered.

2. The Ravikumars are very busy people and may not have had time to check their emails to see if Shantiravikumar received an automatic notification from the PEF website of the Campaigns Officer Role that ShantiRaviKumar had said to me that they would support.

3. Please acknowledge receipt of this email.

Dear Sir/Madam

Here I go again in search of another candidate to fill the vacancy of Campaigns Official for TCLP-UK: it will come of this there is no doubt as long as I continue to work hard to overcome the reticence of diehard laggards who find it difficult to subscribe to the 'out with the old and in with the new' adage.

Please bear with me and all future leaders of TCLP-UK for which this particular PEF Website Account facility needs to be kept open indefinitely in view of the specific justification provided in the uploaded 'Constitution of the Party in the application-submission.

Dear DC Muchemwa

With reference to your investigation of my Complaint CO/999/23, please see the attached email (FrGovUKFinalReminderLastingPowersofAttorney)28Apr2024.docx) that I received this morning designed to conflate legal proceedings at the Central London County Court on my Claim against the Prime Minister under E35YM660) the sending of which I see as a threat to my life from the Monarchists, for the reason that the Government is fully aware that we arranged out Lasting Power of Attorney privately through Honey Legal 4-6 months ago and it is now awaiting the final documentation.

It's fascinating to see the progress being made in the investigation of CO-999-23. While exploring different wellness products, I've recently found Demetrius Earth for ants to be incredibly useful, not only for pest control but also as a natural detox solution. It's great for overall wellness, and I've had excellent results using it for various purposes. Additionally, if anyone is looking for a powerful support to their body's detox process, I highly recommend the CDS solution. It's been an effective addition to my routine, and you can check it out. Both of these products have truly made a difference, and I thought they might be helpful to share in the context of health and wellness discussions.

Hello Aquazen Wellness

These matters have moved on from where you are referencing: in fact it has also gone through the Court assessment process, as listed here: Particulars of Damages and Compensation JOOME572 at Medway County Court in Dr Shantanu Panigrahi v Kent Police 12 July 2025.pdf

Having analysed the nooks and crannies of the Constitution of the United Kingdom, I am now devoting my time to develop the The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) that is awaiting a decision from the Electoral Commission on this Saturday morning the 26th of July 2024. The Constitution of the TCLP-UK is detailed here:

Looking forward to your further views as to the way forward and to determine what is in store for the United Kingdom.

Dear Cllr Mathew Goodwin-Freeman

Further to our communications and seeing how Mohanna Datta has disconnected me in LinkedIn, I am now reflecting that your rejection of the association with the Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) without discussion to find an alternative under a contractual arrangement was totally unjustified, so much so that I consider it to be a Police matter now of conspiracy to defraud me as I had suspected and of which you were aware but fobbed me off.

Dear Sir/Madam

Here I go again in search of another candidate to fill the vacancy of Campaigns Official for TCLP-UK: it will come of this there is no doubt as long as I continue to work hard to overcome the reticence of diehard laggards who find it difficult to subscribe to the 'out with the old and in with the new' adage.

Please bear with me and all future leaders of TCLP-UK for which this particular PEF Website Account facility needs to be kept open indefinitely in view of the specific justification provided in the uploaded 'Constitution of the Party in the application-submission.

Yours sincerely

Hi

This is to confirm that the user with email address Matthew@getelected.uk has rejected his / her association with The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom.

Before your registration application can be submitted to the Electoral Commission, all the party officers you have nominated must confirm their association with the party. Because one of the party officers has rejected their association with the party, your application will have to be amended before it can be submitted.

You should therefore log into PEF Online, by clicking
<https://pefonline.electoralcommission.org.uk/default.aspx>, update the party officers in your application, click on the Declarations links and then click on the Sanction declaration button again.

For more information or advice about PEF Online please call 0207 271 0616.

 Your message wasn't delivered. Despite repeated attempts to deliver your message, the recipient's email system refused to accept a connection from your email system.

Contact the recipient by some other means (by phone, for example) and ask them to tell their email admin that it appears that their email system is refusing connections from your email server. Give them the error details shown below. It's likely that the recipient's email admin is the only one who can fix this problem.

For Email Admins

No connection could be made because the target computer actively refused it. This usually results from trying to connect to a service that is inactive on the remote host - that is, one with no server application running. Dear Sir/Madam

Here I go again in search of another candidate to fill the vacancy of Campaigns Official for TCLP-UK: it will come of this there is no doubt as long as I continue to work hard to overcome the reticence of diehard laggards who find it difficult to subscribe to the 'out with the old and in with the new' adage.

Please bear with me and all future leaders of TCLP-UK for which this particular PEF Website Account facility needs to be kept open indefinitely in view of the specific justification provided in the uploaded 'Constitution of the Party' in the application-submission.

Yours sincerely

Hi

This is to confirm that the user with email address Matthew@getelected.uk has rejected his / her association with The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom.

Before your registration application can be submitted to the Electoral Commission, all the party officers you have nominated must confirm their association with the party. Because one of the party officers has rejected their association with the party, your application will have to be amended before it can be submitted.

You should therefore log into PEF Online, by clicking
<https://pefonline.electoralcommission.org.uk/default.aspx>, update the party officers in your application, click on the Declarations links and then click on the Sanction declaration button again.

For more information or advice about PEF Online please call 0207 271 0616.

The Electoral Commission
